

DEDICATED EMAIL BLAST

- File Types: HTML (recommended), PNG, JPG
- Dimensions: 640 pixels (width) x Unlimited (height)

Please note: Alongside your HTML file, please include all images used in a separate folder. Ensure that all images submitted in this manner match the exact dimensions and names specified in the HTML file. Given the intricacies of email platforms, it's typically advised to avoid using stylesheets, as they may lead to unintended outcomes and layout inconsistencies from our perspective.

Promote your brand and reach a targeted audience with a beautifully designed email, tailored with your message and links, reaching thousands of opt-in, industry-specific subscribers*. Whether you're gearing up for the event or looking to follow up afterward, your message stands out at just the right moment. Plus, we provide you with comprehensive statistics so you can gauge the effectiveness of your campaign.

Excluding the official attendee list*

Email blasts typically feature descriptive text, product images, and details about your company (refer to the examples for inspiration). Feel free to share any information you'd like potential clients to know about your business. For preshow email blasts, please ensure your booth number is included.

HUNT FISH MANITOBA
